TERMS OF REFERENCE

1. Background and Rational

Set up on 27 January, 1987 in Lagos, Nigeria, the African Petroleum Producers' Association (APPA) is an inter-governmental organisation consisting of eighteen (18) African countries, namely: Algeria, Angola, Benin, Cameroon, Chad, Congo, Congo (Democratic Republic), Côte d'Ivoire, Egypt, Gabon, Ghana, Equatorial Guinea, Libya, Mauritania, Niger, Nigeria, Sudan and South Africa. The Head Office of APPA is located in Brazzaville, Republic of Congo.

Within the framework of medical cover for possible medical evacuation of staff of the APPA Secretariat and their family members, the APPA Secretariat wishes to entrust the management of its medical evacuations to a health insurance company and/firm specialized in this field in order to have quality services and assistance in the area of medical evacuations, etc..

As at today, APPA Secretariat has 14 employees and 47 family members as dependents, with a total of 61 persons. These staff members, who are from different APPA Member Countries, often return to their respective home countries during annual leave.

In accordance with the rules and regulations in force, APPA Secretariat pays a maximum of 80% cost of medical coverage, while each staff member pays the remaining 20%.

The present Terms of Reference cover the following points:

- a. Object of the Invitation for Tenders;
- b. Missions of the insurer;
- c. Possible duration of the insurance policy;
- d. Budget provision;
- e. Bidding conditions.

2. Object of the call for tenders

The purpose of the call for tenders is to select a health insurance company to cover cases of medical evacuations through an insurance policy for the benefit of APPA Secretariat's staff and family members. This policy should cover:

- Medical evacuation costs and hospitalization;
- Funeral expenses and repatriation in the case of death of a beneficiary following an evacuation.

3. Missions of the Insurer:

Within the framework of this call for tenders, the insurance company should:

- Insure the APPA's staff members and their family members;
- Ensure that the insurance policy covers the basic and additional guarantees:

	Guarantees	Subscribed to	Excluded
BASIC GUARANTEES AT EVACUATION LOCATION	Pharmacy	Yes	No
	Hospitalisation and surgical intervention	Yes	No
	Medical Consultation and Related Fees	Yes	No
	Biological Exams	Yes	No
	Radiology/imagery	Yes	No
ADDITIONAL GUARANTEES	Therapy	Yes	No
	Medicalised transportation	Yes	No

- Ensure the medical evacuation, assistance and repatriation is carried out.

4. Possible duration of the insurance policy

The duration of the insurance policy is one (01) year, which is 12 months, in line with APPA's Fiscal Year: 1st April, 2017 to 31st March, 2018. It may be automatically renewed, in accordance with the provisions of the would-be contract.

5. Budget allocation and deadline for submitting bids

Considering the peculiar nature of the contract, APPA Secretariat will strictly keep to the budget provision approved by APPA's governing bodies for this item.

Deadline for submitting bids: Friday, January 20, 2017, by 03:00 pm (GMT+1)

6. Conditions for participating in the call for bids

- Must be a reputable insurance company, based in one of the APPA Member Countries;
- Must justify the availability of medical human resources (doctors or medical practitioners);
- Must show an ability to mobilize, within the required time frame, a medical purpose aircraft in the case of very urgent medical evacuation.

7. Presentation of the bidding file:

The bidding file should be written in two languages:

- Two (2) copies in English and,

- Two (2) copies in French.

The file should be presented in three (3) separate envelopes as follows:

- Documents consisting of administrative particulars and the technical bid should be placed in an envelope, sealed and labelled as indicated below:

« APPA Executive Secretary »
« Invitation for tenders No. _____ »
« Name of bidder »
« Technical Bid »

- Documents consisting of the financial bid should be placed in an envelope, sealed and labeled as follows:

« APPA Executive Secretary »
« Invitation for private tenders No. _____ »
« Name of bidder »
« Financial Bid »

- The two above-mentioned envelopes should be put in a third envelope (or a carton box), sealed and bearing the following wordings:

« APPA Executive Secretary »
« Invitation for tenders No. _____ »
« Name of bidder »
« To be opened only at the official tender opening session »

8. Presentation of bids

8.1.1. Presenting the technical bid

Each bidder is advised to present his technical bid by observing the chronological order of points listed below:

- Understanding of the terms of reference and objectives of the consultation;
- Proposed methodological approach to successfully provide the needed services;
- Professional references of the bidder: here, he is expected to provide a brief outline of self, together with references testifying that the bidding structure is a health insurance and medical evacuation company. It is also recommended to the bidder to present:
 - ⇒ Names and references of external partners in the case of medical evacuation.
 - ⇒ Detailed list of countries that could accommodate patients in evacuation cases.
 - ⇒ Maximum deadline to process an evacuation.
 - ⇒ Procedure for refunding medical expenses and deadlines (in the case of expenses incurred by the patient).

8.1.2. Presentation of financial bid.

The financial bid should consist of:

- a. Quantitative estimates, including the total cost of the bid, stated in words and figures;
- b. Special conditions;
- c. A model of a medical evacuation insurance contract.

9. Evaluation criteria

9.1.1. Criteria for evaluating the technical bid
